President
Constitutional Court

Fax: 011-385-41-450-908

Dear Judge Crnic:

I am to express my deep personal concerns of legal decisions being made before the Administrative Court and other courts in Zagreb concerning the rights of Dobroslav Parga to function in his elected capacity as President of the Croatian Party of Rights. These included moves to evict his party from established headquarters and to deny his party access to its bank account.

I am concerned that these are signs that indicate the judiciary process is not being allowed to function independent of government pressure.

I am a strong supporter of democracy. I am very concerned that there is a continuing pattern of gross violation of human rights and political rights. I ask for your independent and deliberative action based on an impartial assessment of the legal facts in your review of matters concerning Mr. Paraga.

Sincerely,

Ronald V. Dellums
Member of Congress
